In another bowl, finely mash the tuna with a fork. Combine the tuna and egg yolks into one bowl. Add remaining ingredients and mix well. Spoon the mixture into the hollowed-out egg whites. Sprinkle with paprika. Serve immediately or chill to allow the flavors to meld.

Buffalo Chicken Dip

(CC)

Serves 3–4

- 1 ¼ chicken tenders or boneless, skinless breasts
- 1 Tbsp olive oil
- 1 tsp black pepper
- 1 tsp sea salt
- 1 Tbsp ghee
- ½ medium onion, chopped
- 2 garlic cloves, minced
- ⅔ cup homemade or olive oil mayonnaise
- ⅓ cup coconut cream (use the thick part of a chilled can of coconut milk or purchase the cream separately)
- 1 Tbsp brown mustard
- 1 tsp garlic powder
- 1 tsp onion powder
- 1 tsp dried dill
- ½ tsp smoked paprika
- ⅓ cup hot sauce (Frank's RedHot® Original is recommended)
- 1 ½ Tbsp lemon juice, fresh squeezed
- 2 celery stalks and/or other dipping vegetables

Preheat the oven to 400 F and line a baking sheet with aluminium foil. Place the chicken on the baking sheet, then drizzle olive oil on top and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Bake the chicken 15–20 minutes until cooked through; remove it from the oven and set it aside to cool. Lower oven temperature to 350 F.

Meanwhile, heat a small skillet over medium heat and add the ghee. Sauté the onions until soft, then add the garlic and cook, stirring until just softened; remove from heat and set aside.

In a large mixing bowl, whisk together the mayonnaise, coconut cream, mustard, garlic powder, onion powder, dill, paprika, hot sauce and lemon juice until smooth. Shred the chicken breasts, then add them to the mixture along with the cooked onions and garlic. - 1 Tbsp avocado oil
- 1 lb ground turkey
- 4 Tbsp low-sodium vegetable or chicken broth

- ¼ cup shredded pepper jack cheese (or non-dairy alternative)

Coat the zucchini "boats" lightly with avocado oil; place them on tin foil on a baking sheet. Heat the oven to 425 F and put the baking sheet with the zucchini boats inside; cook for approximately 4 minutes, flip over and cook 4 minutes more. Remove the zucchini from the oven and set it aside. In a pan over medium-high heat, add a drizzle of avocado oil, the ground turkey, broth and southwest seasoning. Mix the ingredients as they cook. Desserts, Marinades & Dressings

Flourless Keto Chocolate Cake

(CC)

Serves 8

- 1 stick (8 Tbsp) unsalted butter
- 4 cups unsweetened chocolate, grated
- 9 eggs, yolks and whites separated
- ¾ cup monk fruit powder

Preheat the oven to 350 F. Butter a 9-inch spring-form pan. Put the chocolate and butter into the top of a double boiler and heat over 1 inch of simmering water until melted. Meanwhile, whisk the egg yolks with the monk fruit powder in a mixing bowl until light yellow in color. Gradually whisk the chocolate mix into the egg mix (add in small amounts to prevent the eggs from scrambling from the heat of the chocolate). Beat the egg whites in a mixing bowl until stiff peaks form, then fold into the chocolate mixture. Pour the mixture into the prepared pan and bake until the cake is set: the top starts to crack and an inserted toothpick comes out clean, about 20–25 minutes. Let the cake stand for 10 minutes, then remove the sides of the pan.

Blueberry Cheesecake

(CC)

Serves 4

- 1 cup ricotta cheese
- ½ oz pure honey
- 1 Tbsp orange rind
- ¾ cup blueberries
- ¼ cup pecans
- ½ cup almonds, chopped
- ¾ cup strawberries

Line four cupcake tin cups with plastic wrap. Place the ricotta, honey and orange rind in a bowl and mash with a fork. Combine two-thirds of the blueberries with the ricotta mixture and divide between muffin tins. Firmly press in and smooth the surface of the mix, then sprinkle nuts on top. Smooth again with the back of a spoon, pressing the nuts into the mixture. Refrigerate for 1 hour to form and chill. To serve, invert onto a plate and peel away the plastic wrap. Top each cake with a sliced strawberry, then serve with the remaining blueberries.

Egg Dishes & Breakfast Foods

High-Protein Blueberry Pancakes

(FS, RR, SS, CC, P2)

- ½ banana, mashed
- A splash of almond milk, if needed

- ½ tsp coconut oil

Heat the coconut oil in a pan over low to medium heat. Pour in the pancake mixture and cook until little bubbles form, about 5 minutes. Make sure the pancake has set enough before you try flipping it, then flip over. Cook the pancake 2–3 minutes more. Optional: make three small pancakes instead of one large one.

Pumpkin Protein Pancakes

- 1 tsp baking powder
- 2–3 Tbsp coconut oil

In a large bowl, mix all ingredients except the coconut oil until just combined. Heat the coconut oil in a large skillet over medium heat. Transfer the vegetables to a bowl, stir in the parsley and season well. Use a fork to whisk the eggs with the water. Heat 1 tsp of the remaining oil in the frying pan over medium heat. Add in half the egg mixture and cook for 3 minutes or until almost set, using a fork to pull the cooked egg away from the edges and allow the uncooked egg to run to the edges. Cook the quinoa as directed on its package, then remove it from the heat and let it sit covered 5–10 minutes (all water should be absorbed). Meanwhile, combine the spinach and red onion in a large bowl. Slice the top and bottom off each grapefruit so you can see the pulp. Stand the grapefruit upright and, with a small paring knife, slice off the rind from top to bottom, following the curve of the fruit and removing all of the white pith. Hold one peeled grapefruit over a bowl and remove sections by slicing next to the membranes toward the center. Leave any juice collected in the bowl and set the grapefruit sections aside. Repeat with the second grapefruit. Remove about ⅓ of the sections from the third fruit and squeeze the remainder over the bowl. Using a fork, scoop out any seeds or pulp.

Combine 2 Tbsp grapefruit juice with the olive oil and vinegar in a sealed jar with a pinch of salt and shake well until the dressing is emulsified.
